BOOK SYNOPSIS

As Michelle Baron ascends the steps of Magnolia Middle School, her life is about to change forever. The dream of becoming a teacher leads her on a unexpected journey that will challenge her professionally and personally. Although 180 students file through her classroom daily, one demands her attention more than the the others. Living in her third foster home in a year, Ambers bitterness and rebellion spark a challenge within Michelle to somehow make a difference in this troubled girls life.
